WHY NOT DREAM?

What's the point of spending eight hours a day doing something I don't like? I don't get it. But here's what I really want to know - how do I get a job doing something I'm passionate about? Is that even possible?

Work in marketing and sales for agri-manufacturing; Product design for a fire truck manufacturer; Be an engineer or lineman for a power company; Be a chemical engineer for an ethanol plant, etc.
