Dream It. Do It. Pipeline

This map shows the locations of Area Directors and Career Dream Team (CDT) members, who are the key to developing a strong pipeline across the state. Large clusters can be seen around Omaha, Lincoln and Columbus.

Columbus has created the first Regional CDT. This team has been very successful and actively reaches out to students in their region. If each area developed their own Regional Career Dream Team, just think of how many students we could help and how great this map would look!

As we move closer to the next school year, we hope you will think of ways you could implement a Regional Career Dream Team in your area!

Distinguished Partner

The Distinguished Partner award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding statewide support for the advancement of Nebraska Career Education.

Linda Lichtenberg, President Lincoln Machine and Area Director for Dream It. Do It. was nominated by Lincoln Public Schools for her wonderful partnership with the schools and for promoting the many career opportunities that exist in manufacturing.

Linda is a strong proponent of career education as well as an advocate for students and a wonderful partner for Dream It. Do It.

Carol Andringa, Don Knop, Eric Knoll, Dean Folkers

Don Knop, Lincoln Machine, accepts the Distinguished Partner Award on behalf of Linda Lichtenberg. Don has represented the manufacturing industry as an adviser to the Lincoln Public School's Career and Technical Education Committee. Don is always willing to speak to students about the career possibilities in manufacturing.

JUNE Mentor of the Month

John Welp, RSM McGladrey

John Welp with RSM McGladrey became a Career Dream Team member on the Fall 2008 team.

As an accountant, he has been very busy the first part of this year, but has since picked up the pace and really started mentoring students.

In May, John worked the booth at the Health and Safety Summit at the Quest Center in Omaha. In June, he helped coordinate and facilitated a tour of RSM McGladrey to the Bright Futures group.

Congratulations John,
and keep up the good work!

Reasons To Celebrate!

JUNE 2009

LINCOLN: Teledyne Isco, Inc. participated in the Business and Education Connection 2009 program, which is designed to link high school career counselors and instructors with Lincoln employers. This type of event gives teachers a first hand understanding of the type of work performed in a manufacturing facility and an idea of the skill sets needed to perform those jobs!

HASTINGS: Sixteen heavy-duty truck technicians from across the state will participate in the first-ever Nebraska SuperTech competition at Central Community College in Hastings on Wednesday, July 8th.

LINCOLN: Linda Lichtenberg, President of Lincoln Machine, was nominated by Lincoln Public Schools for the Distinguished Partner Award.

OMAHA: Dream it. Do It. Continues to provide tours to Bright Futures students through the months of June and July.

Area Director moves on

Angie Raemakers, our Columbus Area Director and the inspiration behind the first Regional Career Dream Team has taken another position in Columbus and will be leaving her role as Columbus Area Director behind her. We will greatly miss her enthusiasm and leadership as our Area Director and the Drive for Five Coordinator in Columbus.

Congratulations Angie on your recent success and we wish you many more as you move forward in your latest endeavor!
